We have been working with J.B. Battaglia Container Company for quite some time now and we have not one complaint. They are very organized and have a variety of container sizes that suited our needs. Deliveries are always on time and placed where we needed the containers to be. J.B. Battaglia services the 5 boroughs & pickups were also on time. JB Battaglia made our lives easier by being professional and punctual where need be. Prices are reasonable. We highly recommend JB Battaglia containers for fulfilling your container needs and we look forward to continuing our business with them

Thank you
